Create and transmit emotions in its purest form, this is the simple message inscribed in the project of the Hortus Conclusus laying in the middle of Benevento historic centre. On his skin the natural light of day, and artificial light at night, create a metaphysical space of reflection and recollection. Inside his fence the poetic thought becomes matter and light; establishes a dialogue between art, light and man, and succeeds in giving new suggestions to the visitor making him feel different and why not, better.
