"A man travels the world in search of what he needs and returns home to find it." So for Moore, so for the owner of this beautiful residence. The house, the garden, the paths and the light are the elements that will welcome us always, like a nest in which to relax the mind and body. The light, that gives new life to the building, will be the faithful Argos waiting impatiently; the garden and its paths, together with the new luminous setting that renews them, will be the genius loci of our thoughts. In this garden you will never be alone.
